

ICEG 2009

5th International Conference on eGovernment Suffolk University, Boston, USA 19-20 October 2009

Conference Chair: Michael Lavin, Suffolk University, Boston, USA

- Share the latest thinking in eGovernment
- Engage with contemporary thinking in research
- Join in lively debates
- Network and discuss research with peers
- Learn techniques and approaches to research from around the world
- Communicate your research on strategically important fields with academics and practitioners

Themes include:

- Public Service efficiency and effectiveness
- The case for e-Government
- e-Government for young people
- G2G applications
- e-Tax administration
- Technological limitations of citizenry
- Identity Management – including Authentication
- Trust and Privacy
- How to increase take-up of e-Government services
- Benefits and Inhibitors to e-Voting
- e-Government as an enabler of public sector reform
- Citizens' wider access to ICTs
- The design of audience-specific consultative processes
- Conceptualising public value
- What are the benefits and economics of e-Government?;
- Health, education and homeland security
- Delivery channels for government services
- Measuring e-Government – What benchmarks should be used?;
- IP issues of Open Standards use in e-Government
- Trust Charters in e-Service delivery
- Interoperability Frameworks (National, Transnational);
- e-Government project failure
- Methodologies, tools and metrics for assessing the effectiveness of e-Government
- Can e-Government learn from e-Business?

This call for papers and full details of the conference can also be found online at <http://academic-conferences.org/iceq/iceq2009/iceq09-call-papers.htm>

Important Dates

Abstract submission deadline:	26 March 2009
Notification of abstract acceptance:	2 April 2009
Full paper due for review:	14 May 2009
Notification of paper acceptance (with any requested changes):	23 July 2009
Earlybird registration closes	6 August 2009
Final paper due: (with changes)	20 August 2009
Final author registration date	10 September 2009

For registration options see <http://academic-conferences.org/iceq/iceq2009/iceq09-registration.htm>
Earlybird registration is available until 6 August 2009 and there are also discounts on group bookings.

Images courtesy of Wikipedia Commons and Luca Galuzzi

www.academic-conferences.org