CALL FOR PAPERS, Case Studies, Work in Progress/Posters, PhD Research, Round Table Proposals, non-academic Contributions and Product Demonstrations

Information warfare, cyber-operations, and information security are areas of specialized research covering multiple areas of expertise. This conference is designed to bring together conceptualists, operators, and researchers to exchange and explore ideas covering these areas. Past conferences have attracted participants from all over the globe, providing for a rich environment of idea exchange.

Please consider submitting to this conference. We are interested in the entire range of concepts from theory to practice, including case studies, works-in-progress, and conceptual explorations.

Topics of particular interest include:

- Cyberwarfare practice and theory
- Information security practice
- Dual-use technologies
- Neural linguistic techniques in cyberwarfare
- The politics of cyberwarfare, including conceptual cyberarms agreements
- Information security management
- Cyber-exploitation execution and detection
- Other topics

All submissions associated with any element of information warfare and information security will be considered: imagination and thinking outside the box are encouraged!

Submissions: All submission types require a 300-500 word abstract in the first instance, to be received by 26 August 2010. Please read the guidelines at <http://academic-conferences.org/iciw/iciw2011/iciw11-author-guide.htm>

Full paper: Only required when the abstract has been selected Submission date will be no later than 14 October 2010. Papers should be submitted as .doc or .rtf file attachments by email to the conference manager, Charlotte Hall charlotte@academic-conferences.org
