Mini Track on Organizational Practical Wisdom and Organizational Spirituality in Knowledge Management

Mini Track Chairs: Paulo Pinheiro and Raysa Rocha, University of Beira Interior (UBI), Department of Management and Economics, Research Center in Business Sciences (NECE-UBI), Portugal

The interest in Spirituality in Management is growing due to its influence on the organizational dynamics, such as its capacity to increase employees’ satisfaction, commitment, and well-being and create social good and economic value.

Wisdom has been a topic of interest in several fields for centuries. In the last decades, it has been investigated in management because developing organizational practical wisdom is necessary for the efficient and efficacy utilization of knowledge in the organization. Organizational practical wisdom and organizational spirituality fosters innovation and creates social good and economic value.

Leaders have a critical role in the development of spirituality and wisdom inside the organizations. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Spiritual Knowledge Sharing and Creation
- New trends in Knowledge Management and Leader’s spirituality
- New trends in Knowledge Management and Leader’s practical wisdom (phronesis).
